

GNV, Tirrenia to cooperate on routes to Malta

on: June 14, 2018In: Companies, Ferries, Genoa, Grandi Navi Veloci (GNV) S.p.A., Malta, New Service/Product, Onorato
Print Email

Genoa, Italy (PortSEurope) June 14, 2018 – Italian company Grandi Navi Veloci (GNV), owned by the Mediterranean Shipping Company (MSC) via Marinvest, and the shipping company Tirrenia of the Onorato Armatori group have signed a cooperation agreement for services to Malta that will have effect throughout the summer season.

The agreement concerns the direct departure of Saturday night from Genoa to Malta which will be operated by the ‘Severine’ ship rented by Tirrenia, and will be marketed by both companies. The two partners have highlighted that the agreement will guarantee maximum efficiency on the Maltese market and continuity of service throughout the summer season.

Source: InforMare

Copyright (C) PortSEurope. All Rights Reserved. 2018.