

The haulers candidate themselves to the management of the Truck Village of the port of Formal demand to the Authority of Harbour System so that you start a contest procedure

inforMARE - Trasportounito has announced to have formally asked the Authority for Harbour System for the Ligurian Sea Oriental the which set up urgent for a contest ban that allows to use the Truck Village, an area near the customs passage of the Stagnoni of the port of that is realized by more ten-year-old with a lost bottom in order almost a million euro and in state of total abandonment.

The association has specified that, second the haulers who candidate themselves to the management, in the area would have to be realized a refreshment point, toilets, structures of assistance for the administrative procedures, services to the enterprises, uses offices and parking. From part its Trasportounito has been declared available, also waiting for the contest, to make oneself loaded with the definition of must and the necessities of the haulers to the aim to realize a coherent project. (L'Espresso)