

Day of study of Assarmatori on shipping and cyber security

Examined the European choices in matter from which they are derived the first Italian normative instruments

inforMARE - Today to Rome, near the center of Conftrasporto-Confcommercio, a day of study has held on "Shipping & cyber organized security" from Assarmatori in order to face is the aspects of computer science safety in terrestrial within is those more specific relative ones to the systems on board of the ships, also to light of the European choices in matter (directive NIS - Network & Information Security) from which they are derived the first Italian normative instruments.

In the program of the day of study and I confront are taken part, besides the expert representatives of shipowning companies of the cyber security, also Costantino Fiorillo, managing general of Ministry of Infrastructures and Trasporti and Responsible Anticorruzione, Central Organ of Safety, Cyber Security, Space, and rear admiral Luigi Giardino, head of YOU unit of the General Command of the Harbour offices. (2/11)