

Domenico Speciale is the new president of Asamar Sicily

Duci: the fact that the Sicily has been recompacted represents an important added value for Federagenti infomARE - Domenico Speciale is the new president of Asamar Sicily, the association of the shipping agents of the region. "The Sicily - the new president has commented - has found again its harbour unit and is today in a position to supplying to Federagenti concrete and effective a contribution on large the thematic ones that regards the relationships with the shipowners, the terminalisti and the role of the profession".

"For Federagenti - the president of the national Federation of the shipping agents has asserted, Gian Enzo Duci - the fact who the Sicily has been recompacted expressing also the requests of important truths as the port of Augusta, represents an important added value for the Federation that they give the election Asamar Sicily exits ulteriorly strengthened". (infomARE)